The Homecoming

"The Homecoming" is the next Zeno movie. It is a teen musical featuring original songs and a full cast made up of the Zeno community. With the success of Becoming Bulletproof, there is a tremendous opportunity to make a truly groundbreaking film with a massive built in audience. Beyond entertaining, the intent is to make the first film that is fully integrated, from writing to post production, with disabled talent. "The Homecoming" will show the world the rich diversity and gifts of the Zeno community and move to change the conversation around disability in America.

PLOT

Sage and Anthony are basking in the bittersweet bliss of Summer love at a posh dance camp in Vermont. On one hand, they have had "The Best Summer Ever" and on the other, they have to say goodbye until next June. Through a twist of fate, Sage arrives unexpectedly at the SAME high school as Anthony and the lovers are forced to reevaluate their relationship under greatly different circumstances.

The Homecoming is an original story, loosely based on the untold prequel to "Grease". We will pay homage to our favorite films including Grease, Dirty Dancing, Footloose and Mean Girls. It will feature cameos by Jamie Lee Curtis, Ted Danson, Amy Brenneman, David Arquette and others.
